

Senate Resolution 1278

By: Senator Cagle of the 49th

A RESOLUTION

1 Honoring crisis pregnancy centers in Georgia and the dedicated individuals who support them
2 and recognizing March 23, 2006, as Crisis Pregnancy Center Day at the Capitol; and for other 3 purposes.

4 WHEREAS, crisis pregnancy centers provide critical and compassionate services and 5 counseling to women with unplanned pregnancies; and

6 WHEREAS, there are numerous crisis pregnancy centers throughout this state; and

7 WHEREAS, these centers provide services to women with unplanned pregnancies, including 8 24 hour telephone hotlines, confidential pregnancy testing, counseling services, education on 9 various issues relating to pregnancy, medical and hospital assistance and referral, and other 10 services; and

11 WHEREAS, these crisis pregnancy centers often operate with few resources and little funding; 12 and

13 WHEREAS, the dedicated individuals who operate these centers and who contribute their time
14 and support have the courage and determination to live out their convictions and selflessly 15 serve others; and

16 WHEREAS, these centers and the dedicated individuals who support them honor life and 17 women in their efforts.

18 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body 19 honor crisis pregnancy centers and the dedicated individuals who support them for their 20 courage and conviction and service to women and the community and recognize March 23, 21 2006, as Crisis Pregnancy Center Day at the Capitol.
